

How To Write a Resolution Once You are at the Conference

The resolution is the written document that reflects the solutions you developed during the debate and negotiations with other countries. Learn and/or review how to write the resolution because you will need to draft the resolutions during the conference and submit them at the end of each session. These can be handwritten and there will be a worksheet to remind you of the process in the committee. Best Delegate examples of resolutions can be found here.

There are three parts of the Resolution

Part 1: Header: This is simple and should include the Title and the Sponsors (list of country (delegates) who participated in writing the resolution.)

Part 2: Preambulatory Clauses: These statements are the justifications for the actions you want to take in the resolution. These statements usually start with:

Understanding that	Keeping in mind	Deeply disturbed
Having received information	Deeply regretting	Having studied
Desiring	Taking note	Emphasizing
Whereas

Part 3: Operative Clauses: this states the solution(s) to resolve the issues. These are the action items of the resolution. These statements usually start with:

Approves	Authorizes	Calls upon	Considers
Emphasizes	Encourages	Endorses	Recommends
Reminds	Requests	Supports	Takes note of
